

Relax.
Risk can be managed.

Navigate the complexities of international trade with UPS Trade Assist[®], a customs and trade compliance partner for your business.

Instant access to trade compliance consultant at your finger tips.

UPS Trade Assist offers on demand consultation services that give you critical information required to effectively manage trade compliance for your business.

UPS Trade Assist Services

General Trade Regulation and Compliance Support

Speak to our experts to get familiarized with relevant trade regulations and various tools to help your business internationalize and stay compliant

Updates on Trade Regulatory Developments

Receive updates on trade compliance and customs regulatory developments in order to proactively prepare your business for any changes

Growth Planning

Anticipate key regulatory requirements for your businesses' new product development and market entry activities

Single Point of Contact

Consolidate all your trade and compliance inquiries with Trade Assist so you only have to speak to one person for better support and efficiency

Map Trade Lane Regulatory Requirements

Identify export and import regulatory requirements before a shipment journey to prevent delays and surprises

Consultation on Duty and Tax Requirements

Receive information and guidance on duty and tax requirements to help you manage your total shipping expenses upfront

Trade Compliance Process Review and Improvement

Need help managing or reviewing your internal trade compliance processes? Have experienced trade professionals review and help you improve your tools and processes

Workshops on Trade Regulations

Deliver training for various key stakeholders to make sure that they know what to expect

Email us at tradeassist@ups.com or contact your sales representative for more information.